- I. Call Meeting to Order – Susan Pritchard at 8:25 pm
- II. Vice President's Report – Nan Bradeen 16 papers and 30 project boards
 - a. 16 papers and 30 project board were reported at the Conference this year.
 - b. Overhaul of the Judging rubric for papers and boards to contained on one page and include decimals for tie breakers. Judges reported back that they liked the new rubric for this year.
- III. Student Bridge
 - a. Reminder that new grads are offered a discounted rate into the SDSRT at $20 to remain involved in the Society.
- IV. Student Intern Program
 - a. Awesome experience and presentation at the Banquet
 - b. The current students talked about when they got to the HOD of what to do and expectations of HOD.
 - c. Discussion about how to get the students more informed about the Student Intern Program. Student Meet and Greet helped greatly; maybe a live networking talk with the current Interns with incoming students would be a great way to spread the news.
- V. Other Business
 - a. St. Catherine's Testing
 - i. The long time standing testing will no longer be available and what is the discussion what other programs are using. MIT mentioned and McGaw Hill has one but has not looked into it in great detail.
 - b. Schools rotate as Sergeant at Arms

- i. MTI (2014, 2015)
 - ii. Rapid City (2016)
 - iii. Yankton (2017)
 - iv. Sanford (2018)
 - v. Avera McKennan (2019) in Deadwood
- c. Future of Educator's Meeting – Because the educators are such a big support on the SDSRT conference and discussion was made to continue to have pizza like meeting, casual where everyone can see each other in the room.
- d. Anessa wanted some feedback on JCERT visit and policies in other schools. Discussion was made and other programs made it clear that they had the same terminology in policies as Anessa stated. Other programs recommended talking to the JCERT- Head on the issues.
- e. Additional Meeting between educators heads was discussed (4 corners) fall semester would be the best with potential using the Oak room in MTI.

Adjourn at 9:15 pm
