

Zastrow selected as 2009 ASRT Student Intern

Laura Zastrow is one of ten students selected from the radiology programs across the United States to participate in the 2009 ASRT Student intern program. The student must:

- Be current ASRT student member
- Be a member of an ASRT affiliate
- Be in good academic standing in their particular program
- Provide three letters of recommendation from:
 - Program Director, to include GPA
 - Clinical supervisor
 - Technologist who is an ASRT member
- Submit an essay on the topic, “Why being an active member in a professional association is important.
- Submit a personal profile sheet highlighting personal accomplishments and activities.

Laura will be assigned to a member of the ASRT board of directors and follow that person’s activities and duties during the ASRT House of Delegates meeting, held in Albuquerque, NM, in June.